SOCIAL STUDIES (dark blue section) – Monday, June 11th.
- Identify the seven continents.
- Identify the four oceans.
- Identify United States flag (order of the colors and shapes).
- American Holidays (meaning of each, dates, etc.)

SCIENCE (purple section) – Tuesday, June 12th.
- Characteristics of the mountains, land, oceans.
- Definition: geologist, erosion, earthquakes, Earth, lava, ice.
- Characteristics of Earth, volcanos, earthquakes.
- Air (importance, characteristics, etc.)

READING (light blue section) – Wednesday, June 13th.
Students will read a story and answer comprehension exercises about it.
You may review any of the reading selections and exercises in the AMCO books as practice for comprehension skills.

MATH (red section) – Thursday, June 14th.
- Numeral words: Thousands, hundreds, tens and ones,
- Expanded form ex:
  \[3589 = 3000 + 500 + 80 + 9\]
- Less than, greater than and equal symbols.
- Standard form ex:
  \[6000 + 500 + 80 + 3 = 6583\]
- Clock.
- Ordinal numbers.
- Solve
  - Story problems (addition, subtraction, multiplication)
  - Additions
  - Subtractions.
Grammar (yellow section) – Friday, June 15th.

- Verb to be in past (was / were)
- Identify irregular verbs in past tense, (Ex: have-present, had-past).
- Change the sentences to past tense form.
  - Ex: We go to the supermarket
    We went to the supermarket.
- Present progressive.
  - Ex: Susy (play) – Susy is playing basketball.
- Past progressive
  - Ex: Max (eat) - Max was eating pizza.
- Possessive pronouns (my, her, his)
  - Ex: It’s his cat.
- Change sentences as questions.
  Ex: She is my sister
  Is she my sister?

Parents, you can study with the exercises at the end of each sections (work sheets).
Thank you for your support.

Miss Aglahe, Miss Marisol, Miss Mary, Miss Fernanda and Miss Yahaira.